Big things sure do come in small packages, like emerald rings in tiny square boxes. Jewelers Ed Culbreth, Paul Henriques and John Muller have designed some extraordinary jewelry that would make any woman swoon. Madeleine Page Classy Accessories and Footwear in Greensboro, Ga., is a one-stop shop for everything you need to complete an outfit for an evening out. Durga McCurdy, American born of Indian descent launched her line durga-kali after a Hindu goddess. Durga and Kali represent two different aspects of the goddess and similarly her durga-kali reversible dresses have two sides and are both stunning and practical. With a few simple steps an elegant evening gown can be transformed into a knee-lengthed cocktail dress, allowing you to keep your bridesmaid dress and use it over and over. But don't take our word for it, see for yourself.
